

Charity Challenge

Scaling the heights for charity

On the weekend of Saturday 12th December a collection of volunteers took part in a sponsored abseil from the top of the National Marine Aquarium

Maitlands' Genna Skelly and Faye Fraser - Allden were two of those who took part and scaled the 60ft challenge and agreed to take the plunge. The fundraising event was in support of the Children's Hospice South West

" Thanks for everyone's support and involvement in the experience "

children's hospice
SOUTH WEST